I'm sorry again

Sorry sorry sorry

Hi baba, im sorry about everything again :< i didnt mean to explode and overthink everything. Im very very very sorry and I wont ever do it again. I wont go around the bush again, I wont avoid problems again and i promise ill always do my best to make sure it works and that we can get through our problems.

This time im very very very sure that itll be okie cuz i know what to do when something like this happens again: talk to you. Im sorry i was too weak to speak straight to your face last time but this time it wont happen again i promise.

Like last time, thank you for understanding and forgiving me. I know i dont deserve it but you still gave it to me and i am very thankful. I want us to be able to continue together and flourish and spend more time together. Thank you for spending so much time with me yesterday, I really loved it a lot <3 but but can we continue to do morrrr? More herefm more watch together maybe more of watch you play stardew oso? :< i wanna spend more time with you and listen to your voice more often.

Once again im very very very sorry that i started all of this and please please please if im overthinking of going crazy please slap me cuz i need to wake up ;-;. thank you for being with me throughout it all and i love you so much <3
